Behind the news, January

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

2025 is off to a good start with great support at the Bundy Social Club Super Saturday raffles, and for our first meeting, plenty of bums on the new seats donated to us by Legacy who had received them from the Bundy Services (now Social) Club. Legacy 'lads' hand delivered the seating—thank you Legacy, Len and Troy.

And the topping on the cream cake of 2025 is Jennifer Waldron OAM.

Congratulations to Jenny, so well deserved.

FAREWELL OUR LAST AUSTRALIAN WWII VETERAN MEMBER—SHIRLEY COUTTS

Please see the Vale notice on page 10 for details of a memorial service on 10 February.

We have one remaining WWII member, Joy Christou, British Land Army. Joy is 102.

BDWV MOVING FORWARD

In just 8 weeks or less, we elect a new committee. Hopefully! Our year and our future could depend on you.

Nominate now—forms are available electronically from the secretary or assistant secretary and printed forms are available at the Lodge.

All positions are available but please read page 4 for a brief on what the two 'vacant due to retiring' positions entail.

NOTICE OF AGM

Please read this notice on page 12. It contains details of cut off dates.

MEMBERSHIP!

Membership subs are due now. Some have paid in advance and others have been paying during January. You need to be financial by the Annual General Meeting. If unsure, please check with Secretary Faye.

ACTIVITIES

Department of Veterans' Affairs, Veteran Wellbeing Grant 2023-24.

Our activities officer was surprised and happy to learn that our grant application was approved albeit some months later than expected.

As a result, Jenny has looked at adding a Murgon Getaway in September and an additional arty/crafty type activity; the opportunity to match our vocal cord talent with our twanging skill on a ukulele in October or November.

Watch the activity pages for more detail. Thank you DVA!

Summer Luncheon 10 Feb

A chance to enjoy greats like fried ice cream and other tasty treats that are offered by Saangs Asian Fusion.

You need to book with Jenny W by 1 Feb so that Jenny can ensure we have tables organised.

Timing is noon. Members who are the first to arrive, please fill one or two tables, and then place your orders. This will allow those arriving later from the Shirley Coutts memorial service, to sit at the other table and will avoid having to wait for them to arrive before ordering. It will also be easier for staff serving.

Order your own choice from the menu and pay for your own selection.

It would be appreciated if any member needing to cancel, informs Jenny ASAP. We were rather embarrassed by no-shows last February.

Pages 6 and 7:

Check these two pages for coming activities.

And of course, we need a full committee to enable their deliverance!

SUPPORT FOR QUOTA CARE BAGS

Your committee approved the siting of a collection container at the Lodge where members wishing to donate items to Quota can easily do so. Jeannie and Annette will clear the container regularly and ensure your gifts to women and children escaping domestic violence are delivered appropriately. There is a list available to use as a guide.

WELLBEING

Thank you to Jeannie for adding her name to the official list of Wellbeing Support Officers (WSO). Jeannie has already been 'looking out' for some of our members.

One of the biggest tasks undertaken by a WSO is to be contactable for a member who needs to talk to a friend. Visiting a hospital or a nursing home only occurs when we are made aware that a member is in hospital/home. And then the request for a volunteer visitor is sought from the WSO's or from other members. Why not consider becoming a WSO?

Stats. WSO's, the activity officer and activity coordinators provide the wellbeing officer with monthly statistics. All figures collected are ultimately reflected in our annual report which you can then view.

We know that there is additional friendship related activities that are not included, they may not be measured but they are invaluable to our members.

Hervey Bay shares Friendship January
A real friend is the one who walks in when the rest of the world walks out.

'25—lets be alive!

We have many service members and some are bound to have the ability needed to be our president and also our secretary.

We require two volunteers to come forward ASAP

So much to look forward to:

- Our activities for 2025 have been planned, and expanded thanks to a grant from DVA's Veteran Wellbeing Grant program
- Our commemorations planning for our Quiet Moment and for the War Nurses Service on Anzac Day is underway with approvals received
- Our healthy activities, have kicked off with line dancing and ten pin bowlers are knockin' 'em down!
- Our strategic plan 2025-2030 is in place and includes a reunion in 2027

We just need a president to...

- Preside over our meetings and ensure deliverance of our strategic plan

And a Secretary to...

- Prepare our agendas, take our minutes, handle the correspondence and tick off our governance responsibilities

Most, if not all committee have indicated they will nominate and if elected, provide assistance to our new president and secretary. Together the committee will ensure our members continue to enjoy all that our association of friendship offers.

Please help us to continue.....

JUST TWO PERSONS ARE NEEDED TO VOLUNTEER, TO FILL THE VACANT PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY POSITIONS.

Contact President Sheryl 0423 393 151 or Secretary Faye 0419 194 701 to volunteer your assistance.

also encourage new members!

December Cuppa Chat and January Super Saturday

Our first meeting for 2025 (January 17th)

Our last Super Saturday raffles day for 2025 at the Bundy Social club (January 25th)

A big thank you to the members who attended during January; and the Bundy Social Club for the support provided as a result.

SHIRLEY FIELD COUTTS NEE FLOWERS

23 December 1924—16 December 2024

101404 ACW, Women's Auxiliary Australian Air Force 15 Apr 1943 to 26 Oct 1945

Shirley was born in Yeppoon.. She enlisted in the WAAAF in Brisbane and served at RAAF Station Bundaberg and No 7 Stores Depot Toowoomba as an equipment assistant.

Shirley first joined the Bundaberg & District Ex Servicewomen's Association in 1991. Following a break she re-joined in 2002, remaining a member continuously from that date. Shirley and husband Bill were great supporters of association activities and Shirley always spread her ever-present smile at meetings and other gatherings.

Shirley's family travelled to be with her for a pre-birthday gathering arranged by them to celebrate her coming one hundredth celebration on 23 December. At this family party, Shirley received the King's letter. She passed away peacefully just one week out from her birthday and was privately cremated on her birthday.

A memorial service will be held on 10 February, at Bundaberg Crematorium at 1100 Hrs. to honour our last Australian World War Two veteran member.

STREETS OF REMEMBRANCE—WOMEN VETERANS

A Bundaberg Regional Council program.

A Bundaberg District Women Veterans' Saluting Their Service project.

To date our association has made 23 submissions. 11 have been approved. Most of these are WWI or WWII. Ten current members have been identified as having active/peace keeping/overseas service plus a meaningful connection to the Bundaberg region. Of these ten, five submissions have been made.

Service with the British Queen Alexandra services will not be approved, (Sisters Cullen, Cheesman and Wilson) but the data supplied by us will be retained for any future expansion of the program and for historic reasons.

In almost all of the results to date, the submitted names have been added to the council's list of possible street names that may be chosen by future developers. Some may be years before being honoured, but at least they are on the list! More will be added in coming weeks/months.

WORDS

Kids are truly priceless

NEW & SCARY SIGHT

A little boy got lost at the YMCA and found himself in the women's locker room. When he was spotted, the room burst into shrieks, with ladies grabbing towels and running for cover. The little boy watched in amazement and then asked, "What's the matter-haven't you ever seen a little boy before?"

I was driving with my three young children one warm summer evening when a woman in the convertible ahead of us stood up and waved. She was stark naked! As I was reeling from the shock, I heard my five-year-old shout from the back seat, "Mom! That lady isn't wearing a seat belt!"

TOOTHBRUSH LOGIC

My son Zachary, 4, came screaming out of the bathroom to tell me he'd dropped his toothbrush in the toilet. So I fished it out and threw it in the garbage. Zachary stood there thinking for a moment, then ran to my bathroom and came out with my toothbrush. He held it up and said with a charming little smile, "We better throw this one out too then, 'cause it fell in the toilet a few days ago."

- Dad, are we pyromaniacs? Yes, we arson.
- What do you call a pig with laryngitis? Disgruntled.
- Why do bees stay in their hives during winter? Swarm.
- If you're bad at haggling, you'll end up paying the price.
- Just so everyone's clear, I'm going to put my glasses on.
- A commander walks into a bar and orders everyone around.
- I lost my job as a stage designer. I left without making a scene.
- Never buy flowers from a monk. Only you can prevent florist friars.
- How much did the pirate pay to get his ears pierced? A buccaneer.
- I once worked at a cheap pizza shop to get by. I kneaded the dough.
- My friends and I have named our band 'Duvet'. It's a cover band.
- I lost my girlfriend's audiobook, and now I'll never hear the end of it.
- Why is 'dark' spelled with a k and not c? Because you can't see in the dark.
- Why is it unwise to share your secrets with a clock? Well, time will tell.
- When I told my contractor I didn't want carpeted steps, they gave me a blank stare.
- Bono and The Edge walk into a Dublin bar and the bartender says, "Oh no, not U2 again."
- Prison is just one word to you, but for some people, it's a whole sentence.
- Scientists got together to study the effects of alcohol on a person's walk, and the result was staggering.
- I'm trying to organize a hide and seek tournament, but good players are really hard to find.
- I got over my addiction to chocolate, marshmallows, and nuts. I won't lie, it was a rocky road.
- What do you say to comfort a friend who's struggling with grammar? There, their, they're.
- I went to the toy store and asked the assistant where the Schwarzenegger dolls are and he replied, "Aisle B, back."
- What did the surgeon say to the patient who insisted on closing up their own incision? Suture self.
- I've started telling everyone about the benefits of eating dried grapes. It's all about raisin awareness.

. I'm not saying I'm old and worn out, but I make sure I'm nowhere near the curb on trash day.
